

Hello,

My name is John Derrick.

I am a self employed, work from home father of three.

I enjoy bicycling, computers, self development, spirituality, meditation, health, internet marketing & working from home.

Family – I have a lovely wife and three kids. One of the best things I find about working from home is that I am able to be here for my children when they come home from school. My oldest son is already in college while my youngest is just entering preschool.

Spiritual – I am on a path of spirituality and self discovery that is extremely exciting. I never know where it will lead me, but I have learned over the years to trust that everything will be for the higher good.

Internet Marketer – I have been earning a living on the internet since 1999. I don't like to do the same job repeatedly, so working on the ever expanding internet has allowed me to do something new whenever I desire to explore new territory. I have taught many others how to earn a living online and even provided them with thousands of dollars worth of products on my website: www.YourWealthCourse.net

The Law of Attraction – I have been using this powerful force to transform my life even before it was officially named "Law of Attraction". You can read about my life transformation and how it saved my life on www.YourSecretCourse.com

More About Me – You can learn more about me on my personal website / blog www.JohnDerrick.com I really enjoy giving things away on that site and in my newsletters.
